

ESTABLISHMENT THAT IS A PRIDE TO THE CITY

The Yokohama Tea Store which has been established in this city for many years has been conducted for the past two years by Mr. E. C. Heckman, the proprietor, a man who is peculiarly fitted to render the public a valuable service in his line. He has made a life-long study of teas and coffees, and knows all the mysteries of the blends that produce the most palatable brew of "the cup that cheers but not inebriates." Mr. Heckman formerly managed a large crockery and chinaware house in San Francisco and also at Seattle, and has a thorough knowledge of the trade. His store is a beautiful exposition of artistic chinaware, porcelain, cut glass, Bohemian and art glasses, and the articles range from the most popular styles to the very finest collections, with prices ranging from the five-cent article to dishes and sets of dishes that would decorate the tables and sideboards in homes of millionaires. The Yokohama Tea Company's store is one of the most attractive places in the city for the ladies to visit, and for buying gifts at all times of the year and for all possible occasions Mr. Heckman's selections cannot be equaled. This store is at 174 and 176 Commercial street.

THE RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE

Fitted by name and nature, it is certain that the Capital City has the desideratum in the person of Daniel Webster, Justice of the peace for this district. His offices are in the Murphy block, where he administers the laws of Oregon when called upon like the Oregon mist that falls on the just and the unjust alike. In addition to dispensing justice in a very satisfactory manner to the taxpayers and the legal profession, Mr. Webster pays special attention to conveyancing and collection of debts.

Rain is never known to fall in the region between the first and second cantaracts of the Nile.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART HAS REACHED HIGH DEVELOPMENT IN SALEM

The H. D. Trover gallery at 442 State street has probably reached the highest development of photographic art in this state. The requirements of art and the public needs were studied for sixteen years, and the gallery was built for Mr. Trover to meet the demands of some of the best artists in the world. In this new home of photography Mr. Trover, and his collaborator, Mrs. Trover, have not been disappointed, and their patrons have been more highly pleased than ever before—and the Trovers had many friends before they went into the new quarters, two years ago. The fine effects secured in lighting, the perfect results in all the newer kinds of pictures, such as one sees only in the larger cities, have been very satisfactory, and the volume of work turned out at the Trover gallery has at times surpassed their capacity to labor, for Mr. and Mrs. Trover do all their own work, from posing small children to mounting the largest sized pictures, and they take them life size as well as the smallest. At a conservative estimate, the range of their patrons includes the highest public officials and the poorest children—the students in the colleges and the boys and girls in the Indian school—the farmer and his wife, the merchant and his family, the bride and her groom, the minister, the legislator, and the candidate, all pose for their likenesses at the Trovers' in the course of a year. A visit to their gallery is a rare source of enjoyment to any person of refinement and artistic temperament.

Don't Be Hopeless.

about yourself when you're crippled with rheumatism or stiff joints—of course you've tried lots of things and they failed. Try Ballard's Snow Liniment—it will drive away all aches, pains and stiffness and leave persons ever wholly recovered. Give you as well as you were before. Sold by all dealers.

A LONG RECORD IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE

A. M. Clough, the county coroner of Marion county, has resided in this state since May, 1876, and has held the office for the past sixteen years to the satisfaction of the people, having been several times re-elected without opposition. He is a practical undertaker and embalmer, with a suite of offices at 445 Court street, where he keeps the largest stock of caskets kept in this city. Mr. Clough holds a diploma as a graduate embalmer, and has received many fine testimonials from persons in whose families he has done work of this kind. He keeps a fine hearse, will have a fine new undertaker's wagon in two months, and attends to all the details of his profession as a funeral conductor. There are no new ideas or improvements in the handling of his line of business that he is not thoroughly posted about, and he has often been able to save his customers a great deal of money. As coroner Mr. Clough has aimed to conduct his office and discharge its duties in the interest of the taxpayers, never holding inquests when the circumstances are devoid of suspicion, often settling such matters when all the circumstances are perfectly clear by a few calls over the telephone and avoiding unusual and uncalled for expenses at all times.

could not possibly make so many cripples as rheumatism does every year. And yet there is no reason why this disease should cripple anyone, if all sufferers will rub the affected parts night and morning with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Cures all aches and pains. Sold by all dealers.

SPEND YOUR HOLIDAY
VACATION AT PASO ROBLES

If complete rest and most perfect conditions imaginable for nature cure are what you need, spend your holidays at Paso Robles Hot Springs, California. A week or two, and even a few days there will accomplish more in the way of restored energy than a much longer period and more expensive treatment elsewhere, because good old Mother Nature is nurse and physician.

Paso Robles is taking the same rank in America and enjoying the same fame for wonderful cures that Carlsbad and Baden Baden do in Europe. The hotel is a marvel of comfort and luxury, and the bath house built by the city, free to all, is said to be one of the best in the world. It is a stubborn ailment and a hopeless condition of physical breakdown that the mineral waters and hot mud baths of Paso Robles will not heal in a short time.

Call on agent at Salem for descriptive booklets on Paso Robles, and he will also tell you all about rates.
